Ambassador Joseph John Jova

Washington, D.C. 20009

Dear Ambassador Jova:

For the past three years the Central Intelligence Agency has promoted a program to employ more qualified Hispanic Americans. To improve our success in this undertaking, we have designated July 25-29, 1977 as "Hispanic Week" at the Agency. This will coincide with other Hispanic celebrations in the area. The ceremonies, art, photography, etc., that will be on display will inaugurate "Task Force Hispanic," a year-long drive to improve our recruiting efforts.

The principal ceremony will be held in our auditorium on Wednesday, July 27 at 3:00 p.m. We hope to have several prominent Hispanic Americans talk for 10 to 15 minutes each on the influence of some aspect of Hispanic culture on the development of the United States. Afterwards we will have a short tour of our Headquarters and a reception that will allow our guests to meet the Agency's managers and some of our Hispanic employees. We are also inviting others from our local community to participate in these activities.

We are pleased that you will be able to join us and some of your fellow Hispanic Americans on July 27th. We will be in contact with your office in the near future to coordinate the talks and arrange any administrative details. If you should require further information please contact [redacted] STAT

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER
